

AN ENTICEMENT FOR A MARVELOUS ADVENTURE

<https://www.2thepointnews.com/an-enticement-for-a-marvelous-adventure/>

There is a paradise of islands of staggering beauty and idyllic weather year round, that's a tax haven and the cost of living is low, that's self-sufficient in food and everything grows in abundance, that's so peaceful and serene crime is virtually unknown and there's a total absence of wokeism.

What's more, the people who live here love liberty so much they've had this motto emblazoned on their coat of arms for centuries: Antes morrer livres que em paz sujeitos – Rather die free than live in peaceful subjugation.

Oh, you can fly there non-stop from the east coast in a few hours as it's closer than Europe.

Where and what are we talking about? The Azores of Portugal. They, along with the other Atlantic Portugal island of Madeira, are what Rebel and I call Atlantic Paradises.

So what's the enticement? I'll give you $1,000 off if you'll join Rebel and me on our Atlantic Paradises Adventure this June. The catch? We're extending our deadline of January 20 to February 3, so you have a week to make up your mind.

Atlantic Paradises Adventure is for anyone in normal health. We stay in great hotels, enjoy fabulous food and wine, and have a marvelous fun time. Click on the link to enjoy all the photos– realize you'll soon be there.

Write to me at and I'll explain how you get your $1K discount.

Carpe diem – life is short – the time for a life-memorable adventure is now!
