FLASHBACK FRIDAY MEMORIAL DAY SKYDIVE

https://www.2thepointnews.com/flashback-friday-memorial-day-skydive-2/

My skydiving buddy Chris Wentzel and I made this flag jump on Memorial Day years ago to pay tribute to those in our military who gave their lives for America. I'm on the right, Chris on the left. The jump was performed at the Skydive Perris drop zone in Perris, California. It's only fitting I post this on TTP in honor of those whom we memorialize in gratitude on this Memorial Day weekend.
