

LUANGWA LAGOON SUNSET

<https://www.2thepointnews.com/luangwa-lagoon-sunset-3/>

It's hard to find a better example of the glory of nature than here – a lagoon off the Luangwa River in Africa's Zambia. It's also hard to believe I took this picture just a few days ago – and now I'm back home, and Africa so far away.

It was so fulfilling, so rewarding for me, over the past weeks, to provide a life-memorable experience of real Africa to eight TTPers – they'll never forget it ever. I plan to be here again soon – perhaps you'll be with me. There's a primordial magic in Africa that grips your soul like nowhere else. The wisdom of those most familiar with the world is: "If you can visit only two continents in your life, go to Africa – twice." (Glimpses of Our Breathtaking World #145 Photo ©Jack Wheeler)
