Wow – Big News. In Jack's 12/14 HFR, we learned about 327 Jan6 protestors charged with "obstruction" and another 57 on a related charge, with the Supreme Court agreeing to take their case against the charge – and it's the same charge Jack Smith is prosecuting President Trump on. Now two jailed Jan6ers have successfully petitioned to be set free – quite possibly opening the doors of the American Gulag to freedom for hundreds more.

Jan. 6 Convicts Released After Supreme Court Takes Up Challenge To Feds' Use Of Obstruction Charge

"Take down that barbed wire! It's inhumane!"

"Not if you don't climb over it"

An expert view from Breitbart regarding the Texas border at Eagle Pass. To be read with caution. To be generous, Clark in my opinion is worried that Abbott is being lured into being charged with insurrection, which under Section 3 of the 14th Amendment would allow VP Harris in charge of counting the Electoral Votes in Congress to declare all EVs of the State of Texas to be invalid. Abbott has to be very careful that he gets a Supreme Court ruling in his favor to prevent this.
