I didn't make this stuff up. Really! The Special

Consul investigating Xiden for illegal retention of classified documents has found clear evidence that he is guilty – but has decided not to prosecute because of Xiden's deteriorated mental state. Note that most of these willful acts occurred many years ago when Xiden did not have the excuse of senility:

Special Counsel Finds Joe Biden 'Willfully Retained' Classified Docs — but Is Too Mentally Feeble to Prosecute

Censorship – Zuck’s Facebook and its minions are at it for 2024:

Zuck Wants You Distracted: Instagram, Threads to Stop Recommending Political Content

Wait, what? Calling him a criminal and trying him in kangaroo courts for being effective while Republican didn't turn the populace against him? What is it going to take?

Here is a Rasmussen poll of likely voters that asked, "Who is America's most respected leader?"

Donald Trump Is America's 'Most Respected' Leader (By a Wide Margin)

The other war of attrition. Jonathan Turley asks a very intriguing question:

Could Trump Win By Simple Attrition Rather Than Vindication?

The journalism of the future has arrived in time for this year's election season – thanks to Bill Gates and AI:

Pinkerton: If Joe Biden Can't Win in 2024, Maybe AI Can Win for Him

And here is how we got to where we are now”
