Russians Are Bugging Out...of

Russia Putin Needs More Soldiers

February 24. Ukrainians are googling how to make Molotov cocktail.

September 21. Russians are googling how to leave the country and how to get out of the army.

That's the difference.

Russia ordered the mobilization of 300,000 reservists this week. Russians remember their fathers returning home from Afghanistan in galvanized steel "zinc" boxes. Now they see their brothers shipped back in the same type of zinc box.

Russians react to Putin's partial mobilization and conscription orders by bugging out; it has become apparent to them that Putin will kill as many Russians as necessary to keep himself in power:

Even after accounting for differences between the states, there are two different judicial systems. Murder a conservative youth? You are a hero. Use a rifle in self-defense? The press will convict you in a heartbeat.

for some time now. Either he sees the writing on the wall, or he is selling to an underserved market. Whichever is true is not yet clear. He is making good points, and the lefties are turning on him.

In the sanity returns department, here is a delightful rant from Bill Maher:

Countries pass through their fourth turnings at different times. The United States is deeply into it now and falling deeper. We do not know what kind of world is on the other side, but we do know that deeply held values withstood the Civil War and the New Deal. They will undoubtedly survive again, but it is getting hard out there. It's getting harder. In all you do, remember to pass your values to your children and grandchildren.

We face a few more years of Fourth

Turning societal winter:

Are You Ready For Societal Winter?

We know why the Dems encourage looting and theft, theft of contracts, theft of goods and services, theft of time, and theft of elections. We have known for a long time.

Does it seem as if civilization itself is crumbling?
