The Truth is Emerging

They lied. Pfizer, Moderna, and Fauci dirty-dog lied to the world about the safety and effectiveness of the jabs. They did not even test the shots to determine whether virus transmissibility from person to person was affected. Well, dang, it turns out that the jabs are useless when protecting Grandma in the nursing home. Imagine how many healthcare workers were arm-twisted into taking the jabs for the safety of their patients, trusting the official narrative. The discovery that the jabs were not tested to determine whether their most crucial function even worked is one of the most shameful failures in history. They dirty dog lied.

“Get vaccinated to protect other people” was another big lie. I knew this in December 2020 when I read the Pfizer submission to the FDA for Emergency Use Authorization. Though it was over 100 pages long, lots of data were missing; Pfizer did not attempt to determine whether or not its vaccine prevented transmission. It doesn't. Earlier this year, Harvard epidemiologists and biostatisticians' data from over 4,000 US counties and over 60 nations found that increasing vaccine uptake percentages did not reduce new cases. Indeed, high vaccine uptake correlated with a slightly higher incidence of new cases:

The Epoch Times carried this next exciting article.

Now look, folks, the Epoch times is owned by the Chinese Falun Gong international. When reading their work, it is essential to know this; they have a viewpoint. However, the Epoch Times is one of the best, if not THE best, sources of insight into communist China and the CCP. Do you know why? Hillary and Bill disclosed the names of the CIA's operatives in China, and they were rounded up and tortured to death.

A third dose of the Moderna vaccine can make you more likely to become infected with the most common currently circulating variants of the virus after 3 to 5 months:

Well, well. It looks as if China knew that the virus was in the open and things would go wrong back in 2019. Remember during the fall of 2019 when China hosted the Military Olympics and spread the virus to U.S. and NATO soldiers? Then they made sure to infect and fly thousands of super spreaders to Italy. They knew. They knew and were hoarding supplies and writing the script for American politicians such as Nancy Pelosi to ensure things went their way.

Remember all the videos of dead Chinese in the streets and instant “pop-up” hospitals in four days? Those were also dirty dog lies. The hospital was a pre-fabricated apartment building using time-lapse photography over an extended period.

China knew that the Fauci/CCP virus was loose in August 2019:

It seems that Justin and his cabinet have a problem way up north.

For the past few years, our Brilliant TTP members have been discussing the decentralization of power. The wheels are flying off the buggy here in the States, but the wagon itself is in trouble in Canada. Alberta is the freest province in Canada, and Albertans are fed up with Ottawa, but so too are Quebec, New Brunswick, and...

This story is important in its relationship to the trend. Power is decentralizing back to the provinces, and little Justin was a big problem on his hands.

Semi-secession is ongoing in oil and gas-rich Alberta, Canada:

‘Crats being ‘Crats:

advertising or promotions biz. PR is more strategic, farther upstream, and works to alter the landscape rather than sell messaging into an established landscape. Yellow journalism and the loss of the Battleship Maine got us into the Spanish American War. FDR dominated radio and established the FCC to ensure that Dems always dominated the airwaves. JFK married into the media and secured unquestioned loyalty. LBJ owned the biggest radio station in the South.

We all saw Obama define the media landscape as everybody against white men, and he got away with it because the Dems own the J-schools.

The following is interesting because the Dems are faking media outlets to create credibility. They never had to do this before, or at least not to this extent. This is fake until you make it culture showing signs of big trouble. They have no imagination. None.

FBI being ‘Crats:

We all know the truth. The FBI is part of the unelected deep state, and they spend the taxpayer's money like water to maintain their hold on power. How long have they represented the interests of government employees first and the American Republic second? I don't know, but it's an excellent question for the forum.

So the Dems gave this “former” British intelligence operative, Christopher Steele, a million buckeroos to invent the Trump-Russia story and facilitate his two impeachments. It turns out that the FBI was in on the racket from day one. Not as a law enforcement agency but as a willing participant.

But why? Why does the FBI fear Trump, and why all the super wussy behavior?

It is straightforward: Trump proposed turning these careerists, unaccountable to no one, into fire-at-will employees like the rest of us. To stop this, to protect all the wealth that comes from insider trading (FBI leadership knows which CEO is going down ahead of time), and to preserve PUBLIC CORRUPTION, the FBI facilitated the most significant RICO fraud in history. This won't last. The damage these people are doing to our Constitution is beyond the pale, and the word is getting out.

Times are changing. Each of the links above has the message that power in Washington (and Ottawa and London) is losing its grip. This link discusses what TTP has been calling a Megatrend for some time.

The Constitution enacted a federalist form of government, but as our deep state was never part of the plan, things have gone sideways.

The critical thing to remember is that the Declaration of Independence precedes the Constitution. We are on a rough ride, but in the end, freedom wins.
